Description

This property is priced well below the last 200 block walk street sale. This premier south-end Manhattan Beach walk street home sits West of Highland and a few homes from the beach. It has a front home and back guest unit which provide the owner with the opportunity to remodel a charming beach cottage (check out the rendering of a possible remodel) or build an ocean view masterpiece within walking distance to town. The current property includes a three-bedroom home along with a separate one-bedroom unit located above the garage. Sitting on a 2700 square foot full lot, you will be able to capture amazing views and walk street charm. Located just a few blocks from Robinson Elementary School and the beach, this home provides the perfect mix for your family. If you have been looking for your dream walk street property in Manhattan Beach, look no further.
