Description

Situated above the street offering rare privacy in this superb location is a remodeled and reimagined 1924 Spanish, and also situated directly across the street from the Egg Park in Santa Monica. Close proximity to Starbucks, restaurants and shops on Montana. French doors abound throughout the house offering all interior spaces a refreshing ocean breeze and also serves as a pathway to a wisteria covered portico. The main floor includes a light filled living room, office, dining adjacent to a chef's kitchen with a separate breakfast area. There is a guest bedroom, bath and family room on the main floor also. On the second floor there are three additional family bedrooms, as well as a generous master suite with his & hers closets and beautifully appointed bath. There is a basement space that is currently being used as a sound studio but is adaptable space for an assortment of uses. A unique property!
