Description

Welcome to this serene, ranch-style family home in the heart of Torrance. Conveniently located across the street from Fern Elementary School on an oversized flat lot. Stunning mid-century breeze blocks along the front of the home offer maximum privacy and enjoyment of the front yard. Beautiful, mature, drought-resistant landscaping throughout the spacious grounds. The expansive back yard is fully paved and perfect for entertaining under the built-in pergola with room to grow and expand. The interior features warm original hardwood floors that have been meticulously maintained and an open concept living/dining areas. Also included is great room with its own bathroom which can also be used as a family room, media center, game room, gym or even a master wing! The possibilities are endless. The home has been freshly painted throughout with upgrades such as tankless water heater, newer roof, and Japanese soaking tub.
